

ESTATE PLANNING

We advise corporate and family groups in asset protection and wealth management structures.

Through companies, private interest foundations, wills, stock custody services, among others, we offer various legal solutions for the protection of family assets both in Panama and in other jurisdictions.

Our firm has a wide network of companies and individuals with whom we collaborate in order to guide in tax, investment and banking matters for the planning of structures adapted to the needs of our clients.

